

Mains Answer Writing Practice

1. In a country which professes to follow the rule of law and the principle of separation of powers, there is no alternative to a totally independent judiciary. Comment.
2. As the coronavirus pandemic unleashes its devastation across the globe, multilateralism is possibly at its weakest today. How can the current crisis in multilateralism be an opportunity for India? Discuss.
3. The government has decided to use surplus rice available with the Food Corporation of India (FCI) for conversion to ethanol. Should India, a country with acute issues of hunger and malnutrition, be diverting grain for biofuel production? Analyse.
4. Buddha's messages are becoming increasingly relevant in the present context and a guiding light for chalking out a sustainable approach for the future. Elaborate.