Beacon IAS

04.05.2020

Mains Answer Writing Practice

1. With the pandemic set to transform higher education as we know it, there are huge challenges before us, as well as room for innovation. Discuss highlighting the role of different stakeholders.

2. Indian poverty persists not only due to insufficient economic activity but also due to the presence of large unorganised sector. What are the factors responsible for the high informal sector in India? Suggests some solution to the challenges that it presents.

3. COVID-19 has brought challenges on all fronts, health, economy, social etc. To slow the spread of the virus, the immediate step was locking down the country and curbing people's movement. What should be the steps to ease the lockdown. What strategy could be adopted to reopen the economy. Discuss.

4. To address the COVID-19 pandemic, countries need to pool and coordinate their efforts. BRICS countries are seen reaching out to those affected by the pandemic. Explain how international bodies can be utilised to tackle the challenges posed by the COVID-19 pandemic.

Beacon IAS