

Mains Answer Writing Practice

1. Adopting the best environmental standards and practices for new units would give India a competitive advantage as global supply-chains seek to become green and sustainable. Discuss.
2. Discuss the objective of National Nutrition Mission (NNM), also known as POSHAN Abhiyan. How can it help achieve holistic nourishment of children and malnutrition-free India by 2030?
3. Manufacturing sector has most severely reflected the depressed economic conditions as the pandemic spread its wings. Discuss how demand-supportive fiscal policies can reverse the impact that manufacturing sector is witnessing due to the pandemic induced slowdown.
4. India has seen a steady rise in cancer cases over many decades which is causing not only loss of lives but also has a tremendous socioeconomic impact. What are the various measures that are being taken to reduce the burden of cancer in India? What are the strategies that can further be adopted to tackle the issue?

Submit your answers & get personal assessment.