

Daily Mains Answer Writing Practice

1. Even 74 years after Independence, over 60% of Indians do not have piped drinking water. Discuss the measures that need to be adopted to help more than three billion people who either lack access to safe drinking water or face periodic water shortages.
2. “A coalition government is more responsible and more responsive kind of government”. Critically analyse the given statement.

Submit your answers (www.beaconias.com/test-series/) & get personal assessment.