

Daily Mains Answer Writing Practice

1. “The controversy over the river-linking project is not new; it’s a part of a larger development versus ecology debate that India faces with every big project”. Comment on the given statement in the light of the halted river linking projects in India.
2. For the world, net-zero by 2050 is critical to have a reasonable chance of keeping global average temperature to under 2-degree Celsius. What would that entail for India? Discuss.

Submit your answers (www.beaconias.com/test-series/) & get personal assessment.