

Daily Mains Answer Writing Practice

1. "With time having almost run out on any meaningful reversal of climate change, the focus now has to be on mitigation and shifting to a lower warming trajectory than the one the world is currently on". Elucidate.
2. India and Britain have a deep historical connection but both have found it hard to move on from entrenched prejudices of the past. Discuss the given statement and suggest how the two nations can expand their ties.

Submit your answers (www.beaconias.com/test-series/) & get personal assessment.