

Daily Mains Answer Writing Practice

1. The gap between the assertion of women as voters and Indian democracy's appalling record on political representation is unsustainable. What actions are needed to be taken by various stakeholders to address this issue?
2. The United State's support of the TRIPS waiver is a significant step forward in the global fight against the pandemic which would work well only if countries simultaneously address the non-IP bottleneck. Discuss.

Submit your answers (www.beaconias.com/test-series/) & get personal assessment.