

Daily Mains Answer Writing Practice

1. What are the challenges that the medical education in India faces? Can market-oriented approach towards medical education address these challenges fully? Discuss.
2. It is vital to make a clear distinction between forest fires that occasionally occur and annual fires that repeatedly ravage the same areas. How can this distinction be utilised to prepare key strategies to reduce the risk of forest fires?

Submit your answers (www.beaconias.com/test-series/) & get personal assessment.

Beacon IAS