

Daily Mains Answer Writing Practice

1. The State must safeguard its security and sovereignty, but it must also protect the fundamental rights of its citizens. Analyse the various concerns around this critical balance that has to be maintained in a democracy.
2. The two-state solution between Israel and Palestine is nowhere in the offing. In this context, in what ways can India present a lesson of peaceful coexistence to the parties?

Submit your answers (www.beaconias.com/test-series/) & get personal assessment.

Beacon IAS