

Daily Mains Answer Writing Practice

1. India has long been concerned about curbing population “explosion”. In this context, what can India learn from China’s experience of enforcing coercive population policies? Analyse.
2. What are the policies and programmatic interventions committed to the elimination of child labour in India? What are the factors that are posing a real risk of backtracking the gains made in eliminating child labour in recent years?

Submit your answers (www.beaconias.com/test-series/) & get personal assessment.