

Daily Mains Answer Writing Practice

1. Across the world, gender is becoming a significant factor in climate policies. Analyse the progress that India is making in recognising the gender dimension of climate.
2. For a country like India with huge and diverse population, there lay major challenges in vaccinating the entire population. How can India combat the issue of vaccine hesitancy and digital divide in this scenario? Discuss.

Submit your answers (www.beaconias.com/test-series/) & get personal assessment.

Beacon IAS