

Daily Mains Answer Writing Practice

1. The colonial legacy that has lasted in independent India views the border regions as mere frontiers, peripheral and only relevant in the security matrix but now the conception of frontier areas needs to be reimagined. Discuss.
2. The challenges of social revolution are inextricably bound to the art of inner transformation. Examine.

Submit your answers (www.beaconias.com/test-series/) & get personal assessment.

Beacon IAS